Colour Bram

Choose any colours you like.

Free printable for home, library and classroom use. Not for resale.

Read, talk and colour

A short activity to share with children aged 3 to 6. Read slowly and let your child point, speak or simply listen.

Meet Bram

Bram is a little badger with a rust-red scarf. He feels afraid when the wood is dark. One evening, his friend Oona needs help. Bram is still afraid, but he steps outside. He finds Oona with her wing caught between two branches. Bram pulls the branch until it breaks. Oona is free.

Let’s talk

1. How does Bram feel in the dark?
2. What does Bram do to help Oona?
3. Who could you ask to stay with you if you felt afraid?

Make it your own

What colour will you choose for Bram’s scarf? You can use red, or any colour you like.

For grown-ups: There are no right colours. Your child can skip any question. Feeling afraid is OK. Children can ask a trusted grown-up for help; they do not need to copy Bram’s rescue.

Inspired by The Brave Little Badger, a Bramblewood picture book by Milo Burrows.

Free printable for home, library and classroom use. Not for resale.